Dear [REDACTED]

Enclosed are §§. 6-10 of my bibliography on Intelligence and National Security, which should give you a copy of §§. 1-10. Sections 11-27 are forthcoming.

In the light of various reactions to the first sections --- indicating, as I had expected, that key articles and books have been overlooked in the first round --- and a recognition on my part of numerous errors and typos, I plan to have the entire bibliography revised and reproduced in a second draft.

Therefore, your suggestions for additions and/or modifications would be appreciated.

Sections 3-10 will be distributed to my students on Tuesday, November 15th; eventually, they will receive the revised draft of this bibliography, with several introductory pages explaining the meaning of asterisks, criteria for annotations, etc.

25X1A9a In an earlier letter I referred to a forthcoming volume by [REDACTED] in the interim I have been in touch with Mr. [REDACTED] have decided not to include his work in this bibliography due to uncertainty as to its "public" publication.

Sincerely yours,

Bill Harris
